CURING A "TANTRUM."

How Mrs. Murdoch Started Out Hot and Came to Cool.

Mrs. Murdoch had one of her peculiar attacks the other day. She felt it coming on all the afternoon, but restrained herself until her docile spouse came home at six o'clock, when she got the word and started off on a kite-shaped track. She went to the quarter, says the Detroit Tribune, without a slip; turned into the backstretch at a ball-bearing gait; passed the three-quarter pole going smooth and was going down towards the wire like an old campaigner, when Mr. Murdoch, who was feeling unusually brisk, attempted to call her back with a mild protest. That started her off again and she trotted another heat. As she came up the stretch again the old man began to feel a sort of pneumatic tire and ventured: "But, Eliza—"

"Don't talk to me, you miserable brute," she shouted.

The old man sighed apologetically.

"You know you're a lazy, good for nothing!"

"All right, 'Eliza—"

"Ole varmint without one spark of manhood."

He did not question the statement.

"You'd let your wife work 'er hands off 'n' die in the poor-house."

There was no protest filed.

"You great hulkin', round-shouldered, lop-sided, lantern-jawed, knock-kneed—Ooo-oo-oo!"

She clenched her hands as if she longed to strangle him. He didn't seem to mind it now. He was waiting for the storm to subside.

"Oh, you bald-headed—"

"See here, now, 'Eliza," said the old man, solemnly, "see here—now who 'n' thunder's to blame for this?"

And Eliza did not answer.

AN INDESTRUCTIBLE TOOTH.

A Wonderful Story That Is Told of a Japanese Palace.

As has been hinted by the Philadelphia Press, several long articles, if not whole volumes, could be written under the general title of "Curiosities About Teeth." At Yakadama, Japan, there is a costly temple built for the sole purpose of affording a shelter for one of the grinders of an ancient god of a certain Hindoo sect. This palace is known by the high sounding title of "The Palace of the Sacred Tooth," and is a costly and elegant structure in every sense of the word.

According to the mythology of India the god who formerly owned the tooth pulled it out to hurl it at a gigantic cobra, when the irreverent serpent had been so indiscreet as to make an attack upon his godship. In the latter part of the last century Europeans captured Yakadama and partially destroyed the tooth palace. The tooth itself, which had been an object of heathen adoration for centuries, was ground to a powder and thrown in the river.

But the particles came together, and the Hindoo priests say, and again formed themselves into a perfect tooth, which was found after the siege quiet, lying in the bed of the stream. The temple has been rebuilt, and the tooth, more revered than ever since the attempted destruction, is again enshrined as an object for adoration. It is kept in a gold box, wrapped in films from the sacred white spider's web, the first gold box being inclosed in eight others of the same precious metal.

Suggestions for a Summer Trip.
If you wish to take the trip of a lifetime, purchase the low rate excursion tickets sold by all principal lines in the United States and Canada via the Northern Pacific railroad to Yellowstone National Park, Pacific coast and Alaska.

The trip is made with the highest degree of comfort in the elegant vestibuled trains of the Northern Pacific railroad, which carry dining cars and luxurious Pullman sleeping cars from Chicago, St. Paul and Minneapolis to Montana and the Pacific coast, without change, and special Pullman sleepers from St. Paul and Minneapolis to Yellowstone Park.

The scenery en route is the most magnificent to be found in the seven states through which the road passes. Beautiful mountains, rivers, valleys, lakes and plains follow each other in rapid succession to delight the tourist who will also find interest in the agricultural, mining, lumbering, industrial and other interests associated with the development of the great northwest.

The crowning glory of the trip through the northwest, however, is the vast Yellowstone Park, the land of hot springs, geysers and gorgeous canyons, and to Alaska, with its endless ocean channels, snowcapped peaks, Indian villages and giant glaciers.

If you wish to investigate the suggestion further send to Charles S. Fee, general passenger agent, N. P. R. R., St. Paul, Minn., for copies of the handsomely illustrated "Wonderland" book, Yellowstone Park and Alaska folders.

The excursion for Detroit will leave via D. & L. N. at 7:00 a. m., October 30, and get to Detroit about 11:30 a. m. Leave, returning, at 3 p. m. Tickets also good on night train, leaving Detroit at 11 p. m.

What Makes a Beautiful Woman.
E. K. HART, Ind., July 1, 1891.
DULLAM'S GREAT GERMAN MEDICINE CO.
My daughter has been afflicted with female trouble for over six years and I have paid out over $750 in vain trying to find relief for her.

A lady friend advised me to secure a bottle of Dullam's Great German Female Uterine Tonic and she has been completely cured by it.

We gave it a fair trial and the results were wonderful. We cannot recommend it too highly to all ladies who are afflicted. BENJAMIN GANDER.

Dullam's German Medicine Co.
GENTLEMEN—For over four years I have been afflicted with an eruption of the skin, which has been very troublesome and I could get no relief. I was also troubled very badly with constipation, which nothing I tried gave permanent relief until I took Dullam's Great German Blood, Liver, Stomach and Kidney Remedy, and since taking I have been entirely cured. For a tonic, blood purifier and general health restorer I can heartily recommend it. Mrs. Wm. Copeland, Flint, Mich.

Very Much Surprised.
I have been afflicted with neuralgia for nearly two years, have tried physicians and all known remedies, but found no permanent relief until I tried a bottle of Dullam's Great German Liniment and it gave me instant and permanent relief. 25 cents per bottle.
